A Few Facts About County Supervision.

It assumes none of the duties of directors. It will cost the county $700 a year, and under the present financial condition of the county no levy of tax will be made for this salary. If, however, a levy of tax should be made to pay the salary, the assessed valuation of the county is over $6,000,000, therefore a taxpayer who has $10,000 taxable property, would pay the paltry sum of less than .011-6.

It creates no office. It simply pays the county commissioner a salary to visit the schools in the county as often as practical and superintend the school work. The state superintendent has carefully prepared statistics of the twelve counties with supervision, and twelve counties of equal advantages that do not have supervision. The counties having supervision enroll 51 per cent. of the children enumerated therein and each child enrolled attends an average of 99 days; in the other twelve counties the enrollment is only 74 per cent. and attendance 91 days.

Supervision is to be voted on in twelve or more counties next week.
